

Walnut Bottom Bicentennial
P.O. Box 103, Walnut Bottom, PA 17266

On September 21, 2019, the town of Walnut Bottom will celebrate our 200th birthday. Walnut Bottom is a small town named for a Grove of Walnut Trees located in the southwest corner of Cumberland County.

Plans are underway to commemorate this special day and the Walnut Bottom Bicentennial Committee cordially invites you to be part of our bicentennial parade.

The parade route will follow down the street of Walnut Bottom and will be approximately a mile in length.

We invite you to join us in making this a magnificent and entertaining bicentennial parade. There will be numerous events planned throughout the day and we know you'll enjoy being part of our special day.

To join us, please visit our Website at www.walnutbottombicentennial2019.com to obtain parade information and forms. You can also contact us via email at wbbicentennial@gmail.com or write to us at PO Box 103, Walnut Bottom, PA 17266 and a parade packet will be sent to you.

We look forward to your participation and helping us make this a day to remember.

Walnut Bottom Bicentennial Parade Committee